Said apology to take place via teams or zoom call with attorneys present. The parties agree that the apology will not be recorded, is confidential and is specifically subject to the confidentiality restrictions described herein, and in the prior agreement regarding confidentiality of settlement discussions. The Parties agree that the apology will only proceed, and this condition precedent will only be deemed satisfied, if each participant has a sufficiently stable audio and video connection to allow for meaningful face-to-face interaction between the Board member and the Releasors through zoom or teams.

Further, the Parties agree that the Court must approve the settlement of this Lawsuit before execution of this Agreement and fulfillment of the covenants and promises made herein.

2. Settlement Payment.

That check will be made payable as follows:

3. Educational Record.

Defendant Davidson County Board of Education agrees to remove any reference in C.M.’s student records that the motive for the incident described in the Lawsuit as being related to race or arising from racial bias. This includes but is not limited to the reference that the comments were “racially insensitive.” However, because Defendants maintain there was class disruption caused by the comments at issue, the suspension will remain otherwise unchanged pursuant to Rules of Discipline 6.11.1.

4. Joint Statement.

The Parties agree that the following statement will be provided to any third party seeking a comment on the Litigation:

The Parties in C.M. v. Davidson County Board of Education are pleased to announce a settlement that will allow the family, our schools, and our community to move forward from this incident.

While the Board maintains that the disciplinary action imposed was appropriate due to class disruption caused by the comments at issue, the Board apologizes for the mischaracterization of racial bias arising from Christian's comments and will remove any reference to race or racial bias as a motive for the comments from his educational record, which contains no other incidences of discipline related to racial bias. The Board also acknowledges the inappropriate response to this matter by a sitting member. That member has taken accountability for their actions and has privately apologized to the family.

The McGhees are grateful for the steps taken by the Board to correct Christian's school record, ensuring that he can continue his education without this incident hanging over him.

5. Release.

For and in consideration of the Settlement Payment in this Agreement, and other good and valuable consideration, and upon the full execution of the Agreement, Releasors and Defendants, on behalf of themselves and on behalf of all their heirs, executors, beneficiaries, administrators and representatives, hereby unconditionally release and forever discharge each other, including all of their former or current Board members, employees, representatives, insurers, and any and all insurance carriers, attorneys, successors, assigns, subrogees and agents from any and all rights, claims, liens, and liabilities, demands and damages of any kind and nature both in law and in equity, known or unknown, patent or latent, direct or indirect, fixed or contingent, existing or arising in the future or which could have been raised, resulting from the Lawsuit and other claims, or potential claims, that may exist between the Parties or against any of the persons released as described in this Paragraph up until the date of the execution of this Agreement.

6. No Additional Admissions of Fault/Liability.

Other than as expressly reflected herein, the terms and conditions of this Agreement are not to be construed as an admission of liability or wrongdoing by the Parties, and all such liability is expressly denied. This Agreement is entered as a cost-effective alternative to costly legal proceedings and to buy the Parties' finality and peace.

7. Express Waiver.

The Parties agree that this Agreement shall apply to all unknown and unanticipated injuries and damages directly and indirectly resulting from the Lawsuit and any other claims, or potential claims, against any persons released in Paragraph 5 entitled "Release, as well as those now known or disclosed. By this Agreement, it is the express intention of the Parties to waive all rights or benefits which they now have or in the future may acquire under any law, statute or judicial decision that provides that a general release does not extend to claims not known or suspected to exist at the time of executing a release.

8. Dismissal with Prejudice.

Within seven (7) days of the Court's approval of the settlement described in this Agreement, the Parties shall cause to be filed a Dismissal with Prejudice, in a form agreeable to the Parties, and which will dismiss any and all claims asserted by any party in the Litigation. The Parties shall not file a Dismissal with Prejudice as set forth herein if the Court includes in its order approving settlement that the Lawsuit is dismissed with prejudice.

9. Covenant Not to Sue.

The Parties agrees that, to the full extent this provision is permissible and enforceable under applicable law, the Parties will not institute any legal or administrative proceedings against each other or any person released in Paragraph 5 herein entitled "Release" as to any matter based upon, arising out of, or related to the Lawsuit or the matters otherwise released herein. In the event any person or entity should institute any legal or administrative proceedings on the Parties' behalf that are subject to this covenant, the Parties hereby waive and forfeit any right to recover under said claim and will exercise every good faith effort to have such claim dismissed. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this provision shall not apply to claims for breach of this Agreement or claims arising out of acts or omissions that occur after the execution of this Agreement.

10. Satisfaction of Liens and Medical Expenses / Medicare Interest.

Releasors further understand and agree that they shall be responsible for the payment of all past, present, and future medical, hospital, healthcare, Medicare, Medicaid, insurance carrier, medical service organization, mental healthcare, and any other fees or expenses arising from and in connection with any matters related to the Litigation, regardless of whether any of said fees and expenses were submitted to the Defendants for payment.

Releasors expressly agree that they will satisfy any and all applicable liens set forth in N.C. Gen. Stat. § 44-49, et seq., N.C. Gen. Stat. § 108A-57, et seq., N.C. Gen. Stat. § 135-40.13A, (as applicable) or any other lien, reimbursement right, or claim asserted by any Federal, State, and/or local government agency or insurer thereof, or by any other governmental or private entity or person of any kind whatsoever, including but not limited to Medicare, Medicaid, SSDI, HMO, PPO, health care provider, hospital, or any other lien, reimbursement right, or any claim, including, but not limited to, any subrogation claim, to any proceeds paid pursuant to this Agreement.

Releasors specifically represent that Medicare has not made any payments for Releasor's claimed injuries or damages arising from the Litigation/Dispute.

The parties have considered Medicare's interests to any settlement funds and the Medicare Secondary Payor Act and have considered the need for any Medicare set-aside. The Releasor represent and affirm, and thereby the Parties have determined, that no Medicare set-aside is required for this matter as the Releasor have completed all treatment and no further treatment has been recommended or is necessary regarding the Releasorss injuries that were asserted to have arisen out of the Litigation/Dispute, and therefore no payments or compensation for future medical expenses will arise as a result of this Litigation/Dispute.

In the event Medicare, or any other lien holder or medical provider is owed additional monies, the Releasors agree to personally satisfy those amounts and to indemnify and hold harmless the Defendants. Releasors agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Defendants, and all the released persons and entities as set forth above and any and all others released, against any lien claims by Medicare and/or its contractor MSPRC or CMS, or SSDI, or any other lien, reimbursement right, set aside, or claim as to the settlement proceeds, and from any costs, expenses, attorney fees, claims, actions, judgments, or settlements resulting from the assertion or enforcement of such lien, reimbursement right, set aside, or claim by any entity or person having such lien, reimbursement right, set aside, or claim.

Releasors understand that should CMS find that Medicare's interests were not adequately protected in this settlement, then CMS may require the Releasors to expend up to the entire settlement amount on Medicare covered expenses related to the injuries sustained in the Lawsuit , before Medicare will provide coverage for the injuries. The Releasors voluntarily accept this risk and waives any and all claims of any nature and/or damages against the Defendants should Medicare take such action.

Releasors specifically agrees to indemnify, defend and hold the Defendants harmless from any action by Medicare seeking payment of past, current or future medical expenses for the Releasors. The Releasors also agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Defendants for and from any and all claims, any expenses, and attorney's fees relating to any expenses covered or paid by Medicare for treatment related to the injuries which are the subject of this Agreement. The Releasors shall further hold the Defendants harmless from any and all adverse consequences in the event this settlement results in the loss of his right to Social Security, Social Security Disability benefits, and/or Medicare benefits to the extent the Releasors would have been entitled to such benefits in the absence of this Agreement.

The parties acknowledge that they have read and reviewed this Agreement, and that this Agreement constitutes a full, final, and complete settlement of the Litigation. Neither party is relying on the advice of the other concerning the legal or tax consequences of this Agreement and this Agreement is not contingent upon any favorable tax determination. The Parties release and hold each other harmless from any claim of any kind, which may be asserted because of any unforeseen tax consequences of this Agreement.
